

IECA Quebec Branch Conference

April 10th, Montréal

Program

9 h 00 | Welcome from the Chairman of the Quebec Branch of IECA

Gilles Rivard, Chairman, IECA Quebec Branch

9 h 10 | MDDELCC : New legal context for stormwater management in Quebec – Regulations adopted in April 2018

Martin Bouchard Valentine, ministère du Développement durable, de l'Environnement et de la Lutte contre les changements climatiques (MDDELCC)

9 h 40 | The Low Impact Development Stormwater Planning and Design Guide wiki: A new resource for design in an age of rapid innovation

Dean Young, Toronto Region Conservation Authority (TRCA)

10 h 15 | Pause santé

10 h 45 | Bioretention Systems : New CSA Standard

Gilles Rivard, Lasalle | NHC

11 h 15 | Best practices to control river bank erosion : who does what ?

Claude Beaulieu, Environnement Nordik inc.

12 h 00 | Dîner

13 h 15 | Best practices for flood risk reduction for new and existing communities

Natalia Moudrak

Director, Infrastructure Adaptation Program

14 h 00 | Case Study : Project « Mountain Sights » (quartier du Triangle, Ville de Montréal) : How can we manage differently urban runoff in urban areas ?

Juliette Patterson, Catalyse Urbaine

14 h 30 | «Fresh» news on the rational method

Alain Mailhot, INRS

15 h 00 | Pause santé

16 h 00 | Feedback on maintenance for 7 green infrastructure systems

Marie Dugué, Vinci | Pascale Rouillé, Ateliers Ublo

16 h 30 | « Rain garden for salmons », a project to reduce the impact of runoff on a river with salmons

Mireille Chalifour et Valérie Delisle-Gagnon, Organisme de bassin versant Matapédia-Restigouche

17 h 00 | End of the Conference - Cocktail